UNDERSTANDING YOUR NATIONAL QUALIFICATIONS FRAMEWORK (NQF) ANNUAL RESULT NOTICE

The Result Notice shows you:

- Internal and external results
- Results of compassionate consideration (if you applied for compassionate consideration for any standard, the decision is reflected in your Result Notice).

There is one important difference to the Result Notice this year: the addition of the Certificate Endorsement for the National Certificate of Educational Achievement (NCEA). Go to www.nzqa.govt.nz/endorsements for more information on these endorsement requirements.

What the Result Notice does NOT show you:

- Scholarship results – these are sent out in February.

What to do if you think there's a problem with your Result Notice

Internally Assessed Results

If any of your internally assessed results are not displayed as you expect, please contact your school.

Externally Assessed Results

- If any of your externally assessed results do not appear on the Result Notice, check the enclosed Application for Reconsideration form – this gives a list of all the externally assessed standards you entered for 2007.
- If you think any of your results are incorrect, you should first consult the Judgement Statement for the standard, which will help you understand how your final result was decided. Judgement Statements can be found here: www.nzqa.govt.nz/ncea/assessment/judgement/index.html
- If you believe there has been a processing error in recording your result, or that an exam paper has not been assessed correctly, you can request either:
 - a Review
 - a Reconsideration.

Turn to the next page to see what "Review and "Reconsideration" mean, and how to request them.

When will you get your answer booklets?

You will be sent your answer booklets for externally assessed achievement standards soon.

Outstanding payments

When qualifications are formally awarded in April, only paid results are considered. If you have unpaid fees, new qualifications listed on your Result Notice may not be transferred to your Record of Achievement. This may also affect your University Entrance status, and you will not receive any certificates.

If NZQA does not have a record of your payment, a note will appear on your Result Notice.

If you are unsure about your fee payment status, please contact your school to resolve this as soon as possible, so that the awarding of your qualifications and certificates is not affected.

Reviews

You can apply for a Review if you believe there has been a processing error in recording your result, or one or more sections of your booklet appear to be unmarked.

Applying for a Review

- A blue Application for Review form is in this results pack. Please read the instructions on the form, complete the relevant sections, and ensure that you sign the form. Remember to include all booklets for which you are requesting a Review.
- There is no charge for a Review.

Reconsiderations

You can apply for a Reconsideration if you think your booklet has not been assessed correctly.

Applying for a Reconsideration

- There is a green Application for Reconsideration form in this results pack. Please read the instructions on the form, complete the relevant sections, and ensure that you sign the form. Remember to return the relevant booklets with the form.
- There is a fee for a Reconsideration. Be sure to include the appropriate fee when you submit your application. Fees are listed on the form.

If your Reconsideration is successful, the fee for that Reconsideration will be refunded. When your Reconsiderations have been completed you will be informed of the outcome(s) and your result(s) will be updated.

If you attempt to make a Reconsideration application using the Review form, your application will not be processed.

Credit inclusion

If you need recognition of credit equivalence for qualifications on the credit inclusion list, check with your school in the first instance. For the rules related to credit inclusion, go to www.nzqa.govt.nz/ncea/acrp/secondary/7/74.html to refer to section Section 7.4 (Credit Inclusion) of the Assessment and Certification Rules and Procedures for Secondary Schools.

NCEA Endorsement and Certificate reprints

If your NQF Results Notice shows you have received an endorsement on an NCEA qualification that was issued in a previous year, you can request a reprint of the certificate showing the newly attained endorsement.

Certificate reprints cost $15.00 each. Get an Application for a Reprint of a National Certificate or Diploma form here: <http://www.nzqa.govt.nz/publications/forms/index.html>

What happens now?

Record of Achievement (ROA)

Candidates who completed Year 13 or above in 2007 will automatically receive a Record of Achievement in April 2008. Other candidates can request a free copy of their Record of Achievement up until the end of June 2008 here: www.nzqa.govt.nz/login.html or by calling NZQA on 04 463 3000.

RESULT NOT YET AVAILABLE (RNA) INFORMATION SHEET

You have received this information sheet because the status of one or more of your results is shown as “RNA”. The following information explains what “RNA” means and what you need to do about this result.

What does “RNA” mean?

“RNA” stands for Result Not Yet Available. It is the status code shown on your NQF Result Notice when no final result is available for a standard at the time this is published.

Why have I received an “RNA”?

“RNA” appears on your Result Notice when you have an active entry for a standard but no result is available.

Although there are a range of reasons why a status of “RNA” is recorded, it occurs most commonly because of a delay in entering or processing your result.

Does “RNA” indicate a “bad” result?

No. The “RNA” on your Result Notice indicates that no final result has been recorded at the time of results publication, and as such it is not a “bad” result. When a final result becomes available for the standard, this will replace the “RNA” code – until that time, “RNA” simply acts as a place-holder for the final result.

What should I do about this result?

The first thing you should do is check to see if a final result is available online on the NZQA website. You can log in at the following URL:

<https://secure.nzqa.govt.nz/for-learners/records/login.do>

When will the final result be available?

In most cases the “RNA” status will have been replaced by a final result by the end of January. If your result still shows as “RNA” at that time you should contact your school. They have been informed of the process for dealing with these results.

Does the “RNA” status remain on my permanent record?

Although NZQA maintains the “RNA” status on your records as a place-holder for a final result, “RNA” will not appear on either your NQF Result Notice or your Record of Achievement.
